

BIOGRAPHY

Rebecca McClain is the founder and CEO of Life Treasures LLC, a life and career enrichment company based in Stockbridge, Georgia. As an entrepreneur, author, speaker and life coach, she is recognized as an expert in professional and personal success. She hosts a monthly teleforum for self employed women and those who aspire to be.

Prior to launching her business, Rebecca had a successful, fifteen-year career as a tax and accounting expert with a major telecommunications company. She walked away from a six-figure corporate income to pursue her dream to enrich the lives of others. As a former business consultant, she advised and prepared financial statements for individuals and small businesses, and provided accounting solutions and tax planning. Rebecca also formed a number of non-profit organizations for ministry-affiliated groups.

She is the author of three books: On the Road to Freedom: Journey to Becoming Debt-Free, Manifesting Our God-given Treasures and Redesign Your Reality. She has written magazine articles that provide tips on debt relief, spending and budgeting. Rebecca writes a weekly E-newsletter, Inspiration for Practical Living, which delivers ongoing inspiration to help transform the lives of her subscribers. She frequently presents seminars and workshops for business and ministry groups. Some of her seminar presentations have focused on “Intentional Living”, “How to Recession-proof Your Career”, “Achieving Life Balance” and “Redesign Your Reality.”

Rebecca completed the professional life coach training program from the American Association of Christian Counselors and Light University, based in Forest, Virginia. She is also a member of the International Coach Federation and Toastmasters International. In addition, Rebecca holds a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Morris Brown College, in Atlanta, and an MBA in Accounting and Taxation from Mercer University, also in Atlanta.

*Rebecca says, “As a life and career enrichment coach I can support you in achieving greater success and fulfillment in your work and life.
